

 A   on  how to have your  say...

  like to go to  school.

 I can  do many  exciting  things there.

 I can  learn  new  skills.

 I can  find out  about  interesting  people and  places.

 I can  solve  problems  with  my  friends or  test  myself.

There is always so much to do!

Usually I am happy with things.

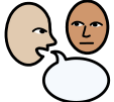

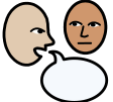

Sometimes I get excited!

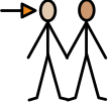

Sometimes I get angry or upset...

Should I let somebody know?

Who should I talk to?

 What  should  I  do?

If I  want to  talk to  somebody,  I can  talk to:  STAFF or  PRIDE members.

 I can  share  all the exciting  things  with  them!

 I can  also speak  to them when:

 I might be unhappy  about the way I have been treated.

Someone  made a mistake  and  won't  fix it.

I may be  feeling  unsafe and  people  won't  listen.

I might have had a  disagreement that is causing me  stress.

If I  like to  write things down, there is a  form in the  reception to  fill in.

I can  do it  independently or  staff can  help me.

I can  hand  my  Pupil  Voice  Form in the  reception - the  headteacher will  read it and decide what to do.

My form might be considered as a compliment and put in a special folder for the whole school to cheer on!

It might also be considered as a complaint and it will need some more investigating.

I will be informed by the headteacher about the investigation.

What if I am still not happy?

If I am  not  happy with the  result, feel  unsafe or at  risk and  need  help,

 I can  contact:

 Dame  Rachel de Souza-  Children's Commissioner for  England,

 email: info.request@childrencommissioner.co.uk

or  call 020 7783 8330

ChildLine on 0800 1111

Police on 999 or 112

999

Crisis Care on 1800 199 008.

The contact details can be found on the display board in my area.

Nothing is too small to talk about!

My voice matters!

I am safe!
